The Elms Family

Stewart Elms founded the acclaimed Felton Road winery in Central Otago in 1991, blending his hospitality background from Dunedin with farming experience in North Otago and a postgraduate diploma in viticulture and oenology from Lincoln University. There, he formed a key partnership with Blair Walter, his lab partner, who would later become Felton Road's winemaker. Under their leadership, Felton Road quickly earned a global reputation for producing some of New Zealand's most exciting wines, before Stewart sold the business in 2000. He remained close to the winery and its team, returning annually to assist with the harvest.

The items submitted by the Elms family promise an unforgettable addition to any cellar. Whether you're a seasoned collector or an avid enthusiast, this collection offers a unique opportunity to acquire some of the finest bottles with a history as rich as their flavour. These wines are denoted with *** after the lot title.

Ata Rangi

In Te Reo Māori, Ata Rangi means “dawn sky” or “new beginning”. It is a name that honours our land and reflects the work we do here. We strive to craft wines that capture the essence of our place: Martinborough, Aotearoa-New Zealand. We are a small organic winery, family-owned and founded by Clive Paton in 1980 with a reputation for pinot noir, located at the southern end of the North Island.

Helen Masters has been crafting Ata Rangi wines since 2003 with a gentle touch capturing the best of each vineyard and vintage. Don't miss the celebration bottles on offer in this sale from Ata Rangi. From large formats to hand-selected vintages of their famed pinot noir and Craighall Chardonnay.

Quartz Reef

Quartz Reef Wines, under the expert guidance of Rudi Bauer, is celebrated for its dedication to organic and biodynamic viticulture, especially their acclaimed Pinot Noirs. Crafting three distinct expressions from their single-estate Bendigo vineyard, their Pinot Noirs capture the vineyard's essence, offering a rich tapestry of fruit, spice, and elegant minerality. These wines are carefully nurtured through sustainable practices, reflecting a deep respect for the land and embodying the vibrant winemaking heritage of Central Otago, all brought to life by Bauer's skilful craftsmanship.

Experience the pinnacle of Central Otago winemaking with rare, large format bottles and verticals from Quartz Reef, offering a perfect balance of fruit, savoury, and complexity. Look out for exclusive releases such as 2015 Titi Single Ferment Pinot Noir and 2017 Four Seasons in One Bunch.

Rippon

Rippon is a distinct parcel of land on the shores of Lake Wānaka that has been farmed by successive generations of the Mills family. Pioneers in the Central Otago wine industry, the oldest blocks at Rippon date back to 1982. Rippon is farmed according to organic and biodynamic principles and the focus for all who work and live here is to do justice to this piece of land, growing wines that speak clearly of their home.

Don't miss this exceptional lineup from one of New Zealand's most iconic producers, featuring rare verticals and large format bottles. With too many highlights to mention, rest assured these wines, all cellared with love, are a must-have for any serious collector.

Prophets Rock

Prophet's Rock is a small Central Otago wine producer founded in 1999. Their two Bendigo estate vineyards are located on spectacular steep elevated terraces sitting across the valley from the third site in the Pisa sub-region.

A vineyard-focused approach combines with minimal intervention in the winery to produce wines that are true reflections of the Prophet's Rock vineyards. Native yeast fermentation, minimal extraction, extended élevage and pre-release cellaring are features of the winemaking programme.

The wines consigned by Prophets Rock have come from the winery's own storage, the best provenance. These wines have a very consistent reputation over the years for great ageability, building complexity and interest over time. These wines will all drink well now with decanting and will reward collectors with the patience for further cellaring.

Let us help to demystify the auction process.

Informed Decisions

Buying wines from auction presents the opportunity to attain wines well on their way to maturity and sometimes those rarely, if ever, found in retail.

However it is worth remembering that wine continues to age in the bottle and will eventually fade - for some wines this could be 5 years, for others over 100 years.

While naturally present, this risk can be mitigated through reviewing widely available vintage reports and critic reviews, and imposing realistic expectations. The reward however, of a fine wine at its absolute peak of maturity, offering its full range of primary, secondary and tertiary flavours should be significant enough for most to negate the occasional disappointment.

So, if the risk-reward scales are deemed favourable, we have a lovely selection of wines at various stages of maturity available in our current auction.

Happy browsing and please bid responsibly.

Bidding Increments

Throughout the sale, the Auctioneer will call for bids in certain increments. The following table guides how the bids will be called.

Remember all bids and price estimates are per bottle, not per Lot. If you make a bid for $10 per bottle on a Lot containing 12 bottles you are making a bid of $120.

Current Bid Value	Asking Bid Increment
$0 — $49	$2
$50 — $99	$5
$100 — $499	$10
$500 — $999	$20
$1,000 — $4,999	$50
Over $5,000	$100
